Favorable .....	7%
Neutral .....	13%
Critical .....	37%
Embarrassed .....	40%
None of the above .....	1%

Parties .....	26%
Media .....	17%
Election system .....	18%
Judiciary .....	6%
Something else .....	16%

Somewhat disagree .....	16%
Strongly disagree .....	20%

Support .....	61%
Oppose .....	17%
Don't know .....	22%

Q6 Would you support or oppose a new election system that used a form of voting that reduced political polarization and that's worked well in cities across the country, but one that hasn't been used before at a state level?

Oppose .....	17%
Don't know .....	39%

Q7 Currently, the boundaries for congressional and legislative districts in Colorado are set by a commission that often draws districts in which there are many more members of one major political party than the other. That makes it hard for a candidate from the party with fewer voters in that district to be competitive. An alternative would be to draw districts that feature roughly equal number of members of each major party, which would help candidates from all parties and independents be more competitive. Would you support or oppose such an alternative?

Support ..... 64%
 Oppose ..... 12%
 Don't know ..... 24%

Q8 The top elections official in Colorado is the Secretary of State. Currently, the Secretary of State is elected in a partisan election, and is almost always a member of one of the two major political parties. If there was a proposal on the Colorado ballot to give the governor the authority to appoint the Secretary of State and require that the person he appoints be not involved in partisan politics, would you support or oppose such a proposal?

Support ..... 38%
 Oppose ..... 42%
 Don't know ..... 21%

Q9 If the state leaders of one or both of Colorado's major political parties urged you to oppose a proposal for a significant change in the election system, would that make you more or less likely to support it, or would it not make a difference?

More likely ..... 20%
 Less likely ..... 29%
 Wouldn't make a difference ..... 42%
 Don't know ..... 9%

Q10 If you could have one of these changes in the current political system, which would you pick: getting more independent candidates, getting more centrist candidates, getting more and stronger Democrats, getting more and stronger Republicans, getting more minor-party candidates and getting those candidates to be more viable, or getting more choices of all kinds on the ballot?

 More centrist candidates ..... 10%
 More/stronger Democrats ..... 13%
 More/stronger Republicans ..... 18%
 More minor-party candidates ..... 10%
